

Building Capacity for Parent-School Partnerships

Grace E. Hardeman Elementary will facilitate the use of district resources by parents and families, including those provided through Birdville ISD parent liaisons and staff:

- A Training for parents in understanding students' state and local assessment and screener results
- A Other parent trainings based on identified needs and requests
- A Links to external agency resources, as needed
- A Parenting skills classes
- A ESL classes
- A Homework help training
- A Translation services for homework
- A Interpreter services for ARD, LPAC, PPCD evaluations, counseling, psychological evaluations, teacher/principal conferences with parents at Title I, Part A schools, district meetings, PTA, and others

School-Parent Compacts

Grace E. Hardeman Elementary will jointly develop and share with parents a school-parent compact. The school-parent compact outlines how parents, staff, and students share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. It also describes the necessary partnership that must develop between the school and its